

CELEBRATE EARTH DAY 2010 AT HAMMARSKJOLD PLAZA PARK

Join the Healthy Planet Party: Free Music, Displays, Treats
Wednesday, April 21, 11 am to 3 pm

Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, 47th St. between 1st & 2nd Aves, Manhattan
All Exhibits & Activities near 1st Ave, east end of Plaza in the tent

CEREMONY AND SPEAKERS AT 12:30 PM

- Attend the launch of Global Voices, an exhibition that transforms a drab construction fence into a vibrant expression of views on the UN's Millennium Goals for health, education and the environment.
- Meet environmental leaders and elected officials; learn about green initiatives and what you can do to make a difference.
- "Stop the Drill! Get the facts on how the NY State plan to drill for gas in the NYC Watershed imperils your water supply.
- Learn the benefits of eating local. Shop the Greenmarket. Sample tasty treats.
- Support our parks and green spaces. Tour the Katharine Hepburn Garden.

EXHIBITORS INCLUDE

- United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) • NGO Committee on Human Settlements • International Architects for Social Responsibility
- Transportation Alternatives • Greenmarket Program, Grow NYC
- Office of Recycling, Outreach and Education (OROE) • brainkibs.org
- freecycle.org • NYC Park Advocates • Vanderbilt YMCA

THE "GLOBAL VOICES" EXHIBIT

presents personal perspectives on the relevance of the UN Millennium Development Goals in communities worldwide. Produced on the occasion of the UN World Summit, it was first displayed at the United Nations and subsequently the Aspen Institute.

Produced by www.whatmovesyou.net

what moves you?

FRIENDS OF DAG HAMMARSKJOLD PLAZA • 224 East 47th Street,
Room 339, NY 10017 • 212-826-8980 • www.hammarskjoldplaza.org

